Full Time/Part Time MA MODERN LANGUAGES

The MA in Modern Languages offers students with a high level of attainment in one or more foreign languages at undergraduate level an opportunity to pursue specialist study. Dedicated academic staff offer advanced education across the subject areas of French, German, Italian and Spanish, their cultures and languages.

Programme Highlights

- Develop your communicative and analytical skills to a sophisticated level of proficiency in the language(s) studied as well as in English
- The optional Erasmus term abroad offers great opportunities for linguistic and cultural development.
- A blend of disciplinary and interdisciplinary studies will engage you with current humanities research in foreign-language areas, guided by internationally recognised scholars.

Entry Requirements

- Primary degree (NFQ Level 8) in one or more languages, with an overall award of at least Second Class Honours, Grade 1.
- Two references from academic referees willing to comment on their intellectual ability, maturity and motivation.
- Applicants whose first language is not English must also demonstrate English language proficiency of IELTS 7.0 (with no band less than 6.5 in each element).
