Economics (Single Major) — DN710

Year 1 — Engage with the Principles

Introduction to Economics	Introduction to Quantitative Economics	Principles of Macroeconomics	Plus two modules from one of the following subjects:
Exploring Economics	Data Analysis for Economists	Statistics for Economists	Geography
			Mathematics
			Politics
Economic History	Principles of Microeconomics	Two Elective Modules	Sociology
			Statistics

Year 2 — Deepen Your Understanding

Optimisation for Economics	Economics Research Workshop 1	Intermediate Microeconomics	Plus five modules from a range of options such as:
			Irish Economy
Econometrics	Intermediate Macroeconomics	Elective Modules x 2	Economic Policy Analysis
			Introduction to Financial Economics
			European Economy
			Game Theory
			Millennium Development Goals

Refine Your Knowledge

Year 3

Economics Project	Advanced Microeconomics	Plus Four Options from a range of choices including:
Advanced Macroeconomics	Advanced Econometrics	Industrial Economics — Public Economics
Economics Research Workshop 2	Elective Modules x 2	Behavioural Economics — Environmental Economics

Plus Four Options from a range of choices including:

Industrial Economics	Public Economics
Behavioural Economics	Environmental Economics
Labour Economics	International Money and Banking
Health Economics	Financial Economics: Asset Pricing
International Trade Economics	History and Economics of Financial Crises
Transport Economics

BSc Economics

Graduate Study and Career Opportunities

Specialise with UCD School of Economics

- MSc in Applied Economics
- MSc Behavioural Economics
- MLitt | PhD
- Research & Academia

Complementary/Conversion Master's Degrees

- GradDip Actuarial Science
- PME Professional Masters in Education
- MSc Computer Science
- MSc Business Analytics | MSc Data Analytics
- MSc Quantitative Finance
- MSc in Finance
- MSc in Management Consultancy
- MSc in International Business
- MSc in Energy and Environmental Finance

Shape your Career

- Economist
- Financial Consultant
- Trainee Accountant
- Trainee Actuary
- Journalist
- Teacher
- Statistician
- Civil Servant

UCD DUBLIN